

CLOTHING DRIVE AND MORE FOR WORKING WARDROBE

United Methodist Women is gathering donations of clothing and accessories for Working Wardrobes, a non-profit that helps people who've experienced difficult challenges to get on their feet. Working Wardrobe works with men, women, young adults and military veterans by providing them with resources to find employment. However, earlier this year, it lost its clothing inventory due to a disastrous fire at its Irvine headquarters. Thus, it needs help in re-filling its closet. UMW is helping and you can too.

Working Wardrobes provides professional clothing to job seekers. It needs all sizes of men's and women's clothing, especially plus sizes. It's also seeking men's and women's accessories, such as handbags, shoes, belts, scarves and belts. Briefcases will come in handy too.

Clothing must be clean, in good condition and on a hanger. Accessories can be classic or funky. UMW will be collecting items on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at the church. The next collection is July 7, at 11 a.m. If you would like to donate, please call Laura Hahn, 887-6311, or Sue Doomey, 525-5527, or Nancy Bailey, 636-2754.

You can also donate financially by making a cash donation to Working Wardrobes or providing $25 gas, food or Amazon cards. Bus passes are also needed. Donations may be sent to the church, 21632 Wesley Drive, Laguna Beach, 92651, attention: UMW: Burnetta Tate. UMW members will deliver or send the donations to Working Wardrobes.
